LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

Excerpt from Standing Orders Relating to Private Bills

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of and deal in the property, real or personal, rights and assets of, and bonds, debentures, debenture stock, shares of all classes, and securities of any form or type issued by any individual, corporation, or company, public or private, incorporated or unincorporated:

(b) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking of which the Company holds any shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities, or of which the Company owns any property, assets, or rights, and, for that purpose, to appoint and remunerate any managers, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(c) To employ any individual, firm, or corporation, to manage, in whole or in part, the affairs of the Company, and to employ experts to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings and, generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(d) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to take over and (or) manage and carry on all or any of the businesses, undertakings, properties, franchises, goodwill, contracts, rights, powers and privileges held, enjoyed, or carried on by any persons, firm, or corporation, or by any business, the carrying-on of which will, in the opinion of the Company, promote the carrying-out of the undertakings of the Company or any of them, or possessed of any property suitable for the objects of the Company, as the Company may deem advisable, and, in particular, for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company; and to let and sublet any property and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole of or any part of the Company's business, property, and assets of any kind for such consideration as the Company may deem advisable and, in particular, for shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm, or corporation:

(e) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in real estate and in movable property, and negotiate for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real estate and movable property:

(f) To sell, mortgage, rent, exchange, or otherwise deal in real or personal property, leases, lands, buildings or hereditaments, easements, interests in lands, concessions, or other rights or privileges:

(g) To erect, alter, improve, repair, maintain, and manage buildings on any lands in which the Company may have any interest and, generally, to carry on the business of a real-estate and improvement company, provided that such objects are not prohibited by the Real Estate Act for the Province of British Columbia:

(h) To acquire land for building purposes and lay out building lots and to clear and improve the same in any manner and to construct roads and ways of every description and to purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire, hold, and enjoy, and to manage, on properties owned or controlled by the Company solely for water-supply, or for the furnishing of gas, electricity, power, light, heat, drainage or sewerage, and to carry on business incidental to any of the aforesaid purposes:

(i) To import, export, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise:

(j) To furnish and provide deposits and funds required in relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(k) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally, and to admit any class or section of those who have any dealings with the Company to any share in the profits thereof, or in the profits of any particular branch of the Company's business, or to any other special rights, privileges, advantages, or benefits:

(l) To borrow or raise money on and to mortgage or charge the lands, property, or rights of the Company, or any part thereof, as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint stock companies, or sociétés anonymes, for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(m) To loan money upon the security of any and all kinds and descriptions of real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and particularly, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, mortgages (whether first or subsequent) and agreements for sale of either real or personal property, stocks, shares, debenture stocks and bonds, debentures, bonds, charter-parties, bills of exchange, bills of lading, deposit receipts, contracts, warrants, and any other negotiable or transferable interest, documents, or securities:

(n) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the Insurance Act, chapter 197, Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1960:

(o) To make loans to the Company's shareholders or directors on such terms as to security and at such rates of interest as the directors of the Company may approve.

(f) To institute, promote, and manage, and maintain systems and plans for the listing and sale of real estate with the object of rendering the best possible service to the general public for the purchase and sale of real estate through the members of the Society by providing vendors of real estate with a wide potential market and by providing purchasers of real estate with a wide selection of properties:

(g) To institute, promote, and manage plans or systems for the general benefit of the members of the Society in the conduct of their business connected with all aspects of real estate:

(h) To purchase, lease, build, or otherwise acquire, or provide from time to time and at any time any building or buildings or space for the purpose of an institute, hall, college or lecture rooms, offices and board rooms, and to alter, reconstruct, equip, and furnish the same for the promotion of the objects of the Society, and to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same when deemed advisable from time to time:

(i) To promote, encourage, and protect the ownership of real property, and to endeavour to maintain real-estate values in the areas served by the Society, and to do all things which may be deemed necessary or advisable to make real estate a sound and desirable investment:

(j) To assist in the development of the area served by the board in the manner best calculated to promote the prosperity and wealth of the area and its inhabitants:

(k) To advance the interests of the area served by the Board and its citizens by the collection and circulation of valuable and useful information pertaining to real estate, manufacturing, industrial, mercantile, and agricultural interests, and to oppose the enactment of laws detrimental to the said interests:

(l) To oppose the enactment of laws detrimental to real-estate interests:

(m) To foster an equitable system of taxation and assessment and to secure the enactment and enforcement of laws and ordinances for the further protection, convenience, and welfare of real-estate owners, leaseholders, and those engaged in all aspects of the real-estate business:

(n) To aid in the adjustment and settlement of any controversies or misunderstandings which may arise between members of the Society:

(o) To secure the adoption and enforcement of sound rules of business conduct and dealing among those engaged in the real-estate business:

(p) To adopt a code of ethics and standards of business conduct to which all members shall be required to conform:

(q) To establish, raise, undertake, superintend, manage, or administer charitable or benevolent funds to assist needy members of the Society and the dependents of deceased members or other deserving persons, and from time to time to make grants and donations out of the income or surplus funds of the Society for the purpose of such charitable or benevolent funds:

(r) To make grants and donations out of income or surplus funds of the Society for the establishment or support of any educational, charitable, or benevolent institution, and subscribe and guarantee funds for any educational, charitable, or benevolent purpose whether or not related to or calculated to promote the purposes of this Society:

(s) To maintain an active and representative membership composed of those engaged in any and all aspects of the real-estate business in areas served by the Board:

(t) To collect and make available to the members of the Board information regarding all aspects of the real-estate business in the areas served by the Board; such information to consist of traffic counts, sales statistics, rental statistics, indicating the state of the rental market in the various classes of rental properties, listing undesirable tenants, and such other pertinent and useful information as will be valuable to the membership of the Board in the conduct of its business:

(u) To make a distribution upon a winding-up of the Society to any charitable, educational, or benevolent corporation or corporations as may be designated by resolution in general meeting, as no member of the Society has any right to or interest in any distributive share of the assets or property of the Society; provided that any such body corporate must qualify as a tax-exempt body as defined in the Canadian Income Tax Act in force at the time of such distribution; this subsection shall not be altered nor amended.
